Materials - Magnetic Sheeting

Magnetic sheeting is ideal for making small decorative magnets or for use on vehicles.

If cared for properly this magnetic material will not damage paintwork.

Magnets should be removed weekly and the vehicle washed before re-applying

Type 1: White on one side and magnetic on the other. Ordered per metre.

Type 2: Rectangular sheets sticky on one side and magnetic on the other.

Sheeting will be supplied in one length up to the max continuous length shown in the tables
